Strategic partnership for innovation - Project cofunded by the European Union
The partnership is composed by: ALPI Social Innovations (coordinator, POLAND), Associazione Uniamoci Onlus (partner, ITALY), Melius Zorg BV (partner, HOLLAND).

The key element of the whole project will be the development of an innovative program of working with intellectually disabled based on the method of individual social coaching.

The idea of the program will be based on the elements of business coaching, social skills training and job coaching. The success of the program will be reflected in the increased efficiency of this method of work in the empowerment of people with intellectual disabilities.

The planned results to be achieved as a result of the project are:

- development and implementation of an innovative social coaching program;
- development of an e-learning course dedicated for social coaches (users of the method);
- establishment of a special platform dedicated for social coaches;
- selecting and training of 9 social coaches (that will popularize the method in the future);
- organization of a conferences disseminating the project.

The Project will end in August 2018.
